Oktoberfest

Held in 1810 for the first time on the occasion of the wedding of King Ludwig I and Princess Therese, the Oktoberfest now is the largest festival in the world.

- Every year on the third Saturday in September, the festival tents of the various traditional Munich breweries are set up, along with the latest amusement park attractions.
- Approximately 6 million people visit the festival during the 16 days it takes place. More than five million liters of beer, 600,000 grilled chickens and over 80 ox are consumed.
- Beer will be served in each tent from 10:00 a.m. until 10:30 p.m. (weekdays) and from 9:30 a.m. until 10: 30 p.m. (weekend) and the closing time for all tents is 10:30 p.m.
