

Event idea Kazakhstan

For other program ideas, please contact us at kazakhstan@dmcprofessionals.com

Nutara/ Samarkand

Breakfast. Departure to the Aydarkul Lake. Aydarkul Lake— is a large closed lake in northern-east part of Uzbekistan, is an artificial water basin in Aydar-Arnasa system of the lakes occupying a total area of 4000 km². The system includes three lakes with saltish water (actually Aydarkul, Arnasay and Tuscan). Area of Aydarkul lake has good facility for rest, the pedestrian walks and trips astride horses and camels. Aydarkul Lake is capable to admire and fascinate the most tempted, many fine places seeing on earth. Picnic on the bank of lake.

Road to Samarkand – desert will be slowly changing to mountains, where from ancient times holy hermits found own shelter. You are now entering into territory of oases and Afrosiyab hills. Samarkand – capital of Amir Temur's Empire and his grandson Mirzo Ulugbek, city beloved by poet Omar Khayam.

Arrival in Samarkand. Hotel check-in.