SIGHTS AND SOUNDS OF MANHATTAN

Upon departure from the hotel this morning, we shall head our way uptown making sure to take note of all there is to see along the way. We will pass by Gaetano Russo's Statue of Columbus in Columbus Circle as well as the famous Metropolitan Opera House at Lincoln Center, which is the current home of such entertainment as the New York City Ballet and the world-renowned Metropolitan Opera Company.

Our guests will continue their trip through the Upper West Side, passing a slew of the residential brownstone buildings that dot the Upper West Side as we make our way through midtown Manhattan down Fifth Avenue and Museum Mile. Here, we will stop at one of the most famous and widely used buildings in New York City: Grand Central Terminal, the largest train station in the world. Our guests will have the opportunity to peek into some of the 40 non-chain retail shops before stopping to admire the beautifully decorated astronomical ceiling that dates back to the early 1900s.
