After breakfast, meeting with ENG speaking guide - guided tour (partly walking) of Warsaw, including the most significant highlights of the city. Warsaw had been called the "Paris of Eastern Europe" throughout the 1930's.

Unfortunately, it was almost entirely destroyed during World War II. Today, Currently expanding at incredible speed, new buildings sprout like mushrooms after the rain! Drive along the Royal Route – the most representative thoroughfare in the city, linking the Royal Castle with palaces in Łazienki and Wilanów. The route, shaped by ages of history, captivates with the atmosphere of palaces, churches, bourgeois tenements and seats of government. Pedestrian tour of the Old Town;– charming labyrinth of alleys bordering with churches, Gothic polychrome frontage residences, St. John's Cathedral, the Market Square.

The Royal Castle visit with entrance and local guide's service. The decision to build the castle was taken when Zygmunt III Waza transferred the capital from Kraków to Warsaw. Italian architects constructed an early Baroque royal residence. The previously existing buildings were incorporated into the new complex. It was then rebuilt several times, and razed to the ground by the Germans during World War II. Detailed reconstruction was only completed in 1983.

In the afternoon visit to The Royal Park Łazienki. This is a part of the complex of buildings consisting of the Royal baths, palaces and a park. The Palace on the Water and the Theatre on the Island are most enchanting. The first being the summer residence of the last Polish king Stanisław Poniatowski, who had the old baths turned into a palace. The theatre situated on an artificial island in the middle of the lake is decorated as an antique temple of Baalbek.
