Walk one the Edge!

- Brave thrill-seekers can take a walk of a lifetime with EdgeWalk, outside and around circumferences of the roof of the CN Tower.
- EdgeWalk at the CN Tower, has become Toronto's most extreme attraction. Thrill lovers will walk on the edge of one of the world's tallest buildings, 356m/1168ft (116 storeys) above the ground.

CN Tower

- For those who don't want to take the risk of EdgeWalk will sit comfortably inside and enjoy the spectacular view over Toronto
- Enjoy a delicious lunch 553 meters high at 360 Restaurant, the world's highest restaurant and wine cellar within the CN Tower.

Hockey Hall of Fame

- Hockey Hall of Fame is the place where you can test your hockey trivia skills or goalie reflexes.
- The hall, located in Brookfield Place, features an interactive, hands-on account of the evolution of Canada's game. It's a trip down the sport's memory lane, fueled by displays, trophies, memorabilia, movies and video games.
- While you're there, you can get a souvenir photo taken of yourself beside the Stanley Cup trophy. Facilities include the Spirit of Hockey store full of collectibles.

The art of blending scent

Aromachology

- Each guest will be creating their own scent, personal to every individual – a scent that no one else in the world will have.
